

The Catalan Center at New York University

Presents Eulàlia Bosch

A City of One's Own: Architecture & Urbanism as Cultural Heritage in Barcelona November 2nd, 6:30pm at the AIA-NY, Center for Architecture, 536 LaGuardia Place,
For more info call: (212) 998 8255

organized in collaboration with the AIA-NY and the NEA

Eulàlia Bosch (Barcelona 1949), is a lecturer in Philosophy, and a Curator and Program designer for Education and the Arts. One of her main professional interests is to explore the relationship between education and urban cultural life. She has curated contemporary art exhibitions such as Mystery Creatures (1992), The Magic Box (1993), Seeing the Light: Eugènia Balcells (1996), City of Words (1998), Oteiza (2000), and Frequències (2009).

With Ramon Espelt, she is responsible for educational websites such as:

- lapedreeraeducacio.org
- unamadecontes.cat
- anycerda.org/educacio/actualitat

llull institut ramon llull

©2009 The Catalan Center at New York University

The Catalan Center
at NEW YORK UNIVERSITY